19. Which of the following actions would you recommend the Tanzanian Government to take?

Read out the actions and ask the respondent to pick one

The Tanzania Government should accept the terms and conditions of the coalition of the Willing and get back on track with the East Africa Community
The Tanzania Government should remain in the EAC but at the same time let the countries in the coalition of the willing processed and join them once they are ready
The Tanzania Government should dialogue with the countries in the coalition of the willing members and iron out their differences
The Tanzania Government should withdraw from the East Africa community and focus on SADC
The Tanzania Government should withdraw from the East Africa Community and form a new community with Burundi and other neighboring countries which are not part of the East Africa Community
None of the above
