

Sources of Data

Sauti za Wananchi is Africa's first nationally representative mobile phone survey.

Sauti za Wananchi – Mobile Phone Survey (Round 23)

Date: 13th – 22nd August, 2014

- ❖ Households -1,408
- ❖ Mainland Tanzania

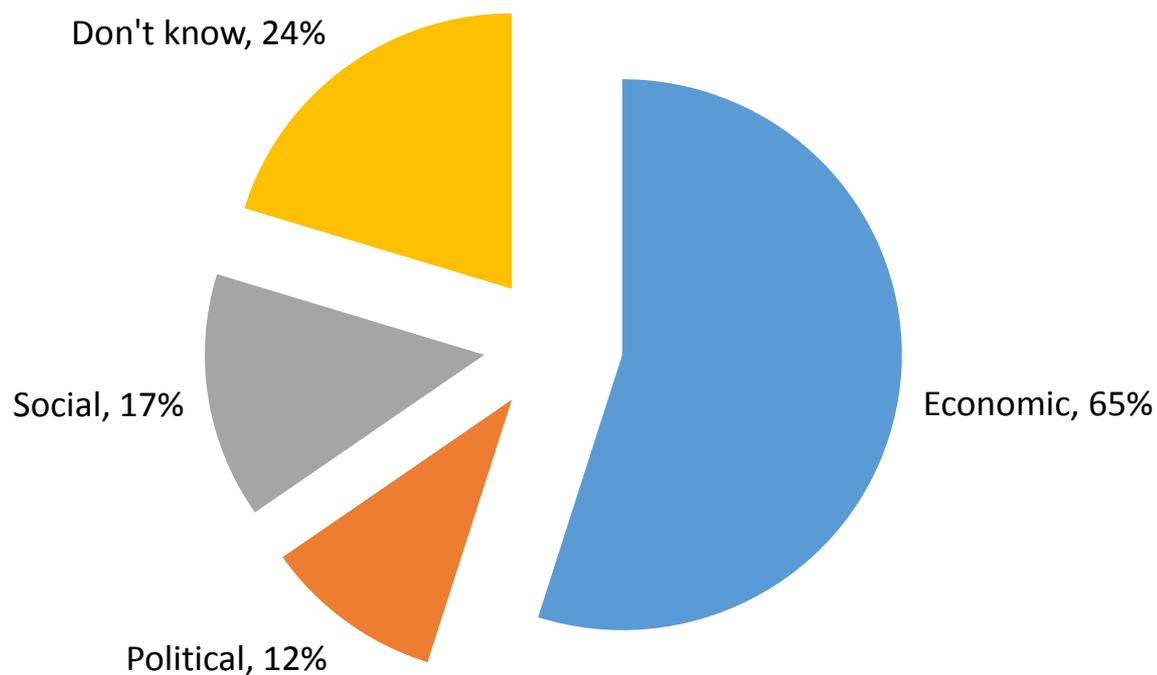

Have Tanzanians heard of the EAC?

Fact 1: 58% of Tanzanians have heard about the EAC

Figure 1: Types of integration (among those who have heard of the EAC)

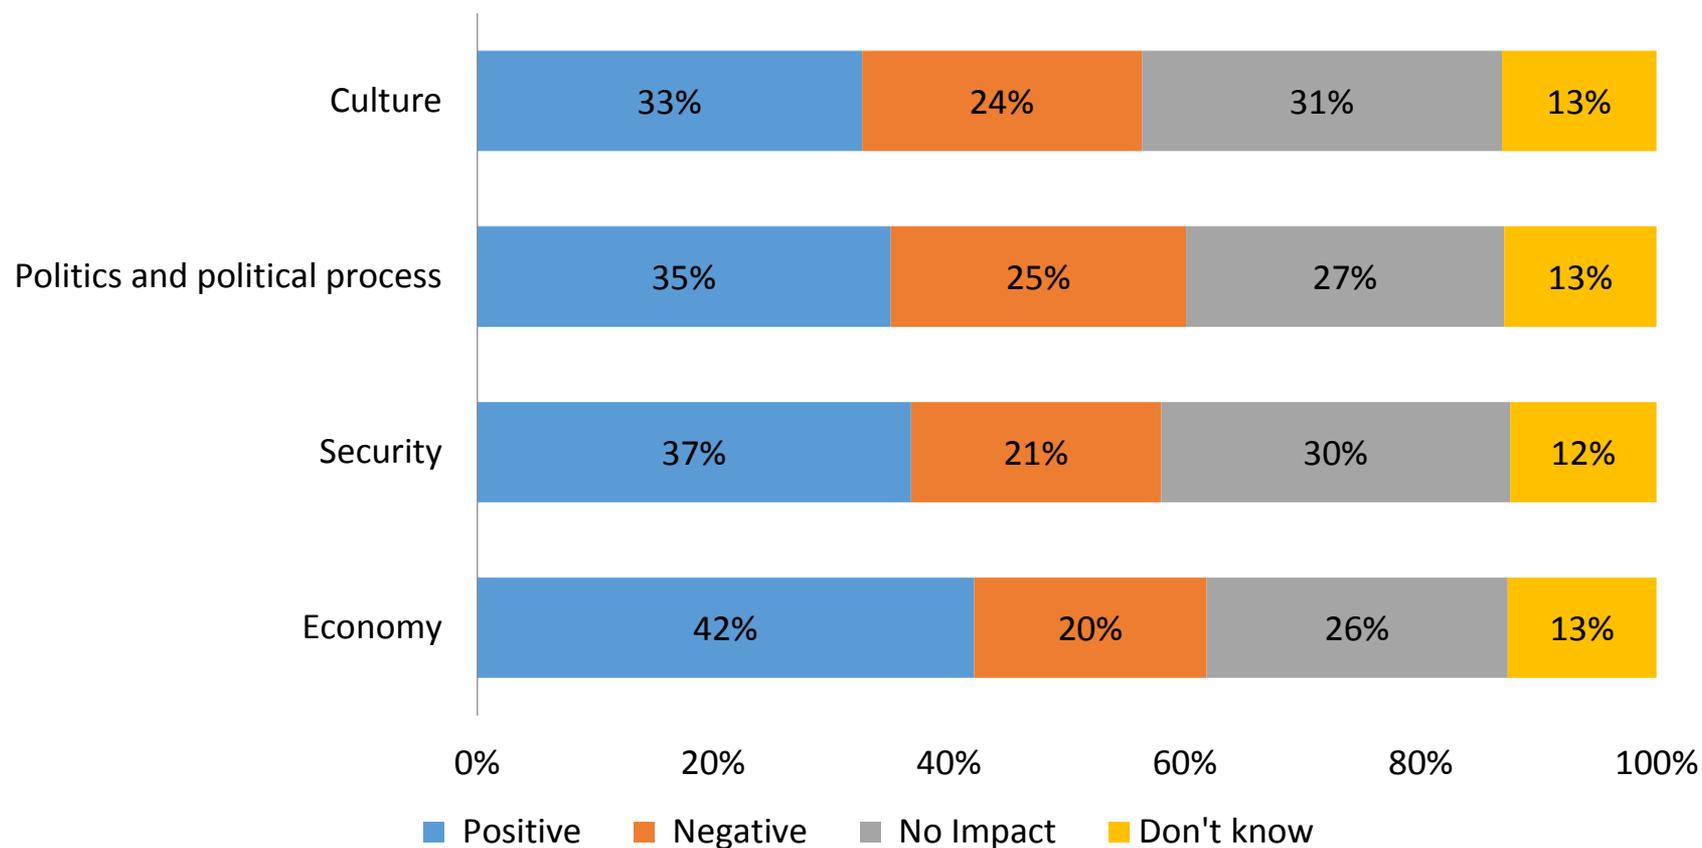

Will the EAC be good for Tanzania?

Fact 2: Most Tanzanians view the impact of the EAC positively

Figure 2: What impact do you think the EAC will have on Tanzania's...?

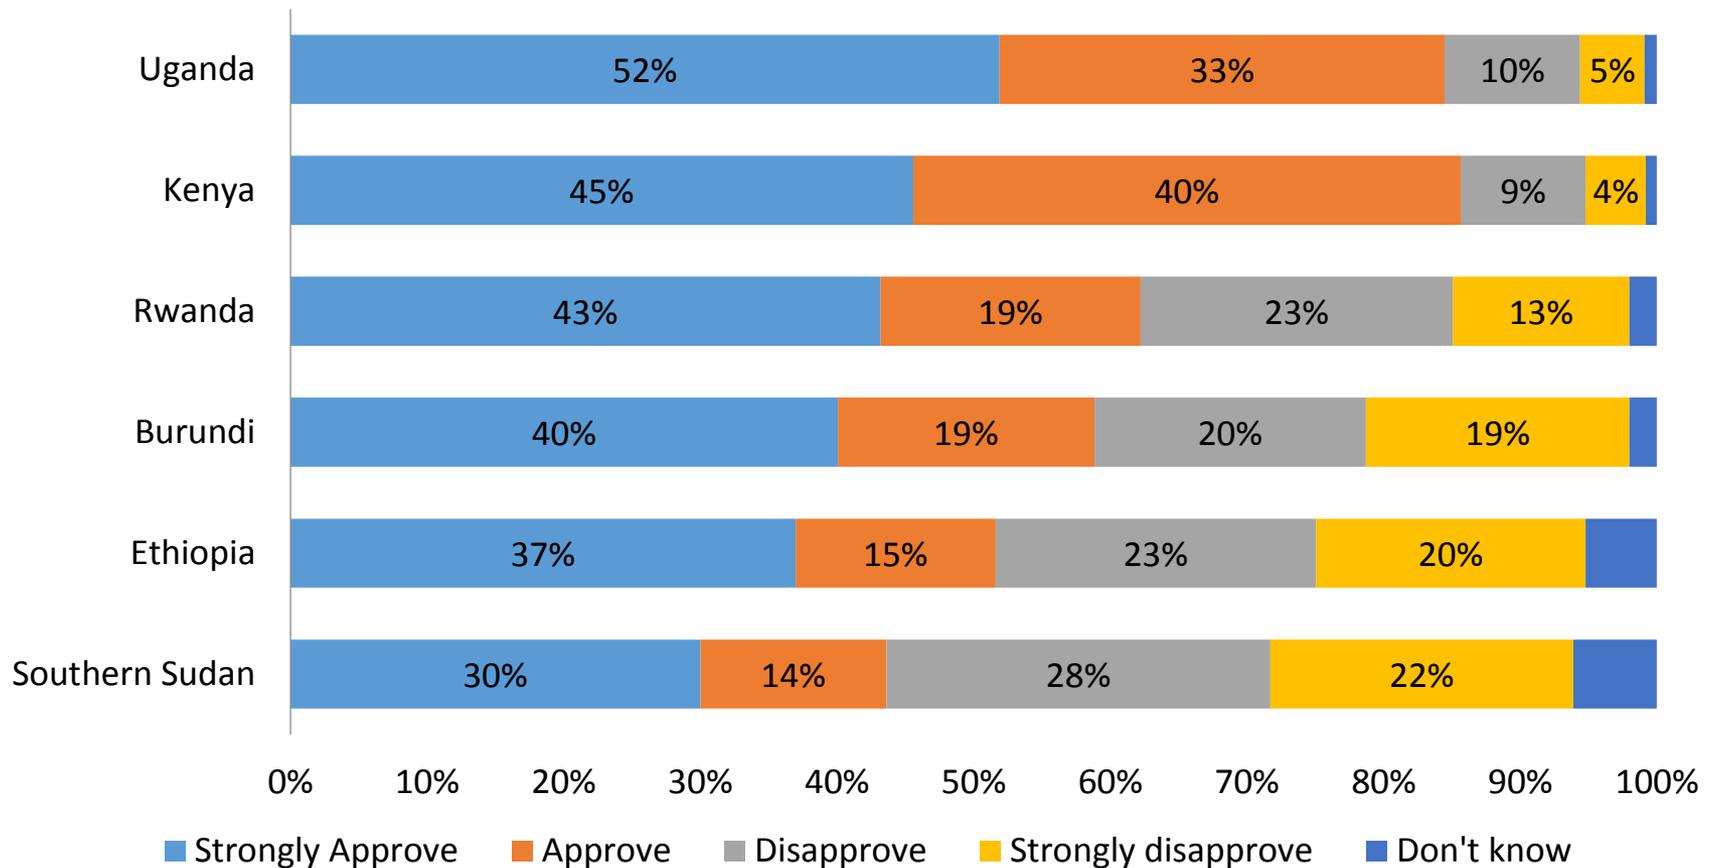

Source of data : Sauti za Wananchi, Mobile Phone Survey – Round 23, August 2014

Who are Tanzanians' favourite integration partners?

Fact 3: Kenya and Uganda are the most popular integration partners

Figure 3: To what extent do you approve/disapprove of Tanzania's integration with...?

Source of data : Sauti za Wananchi, Mobile Phone Survey – Round 23, August 2014

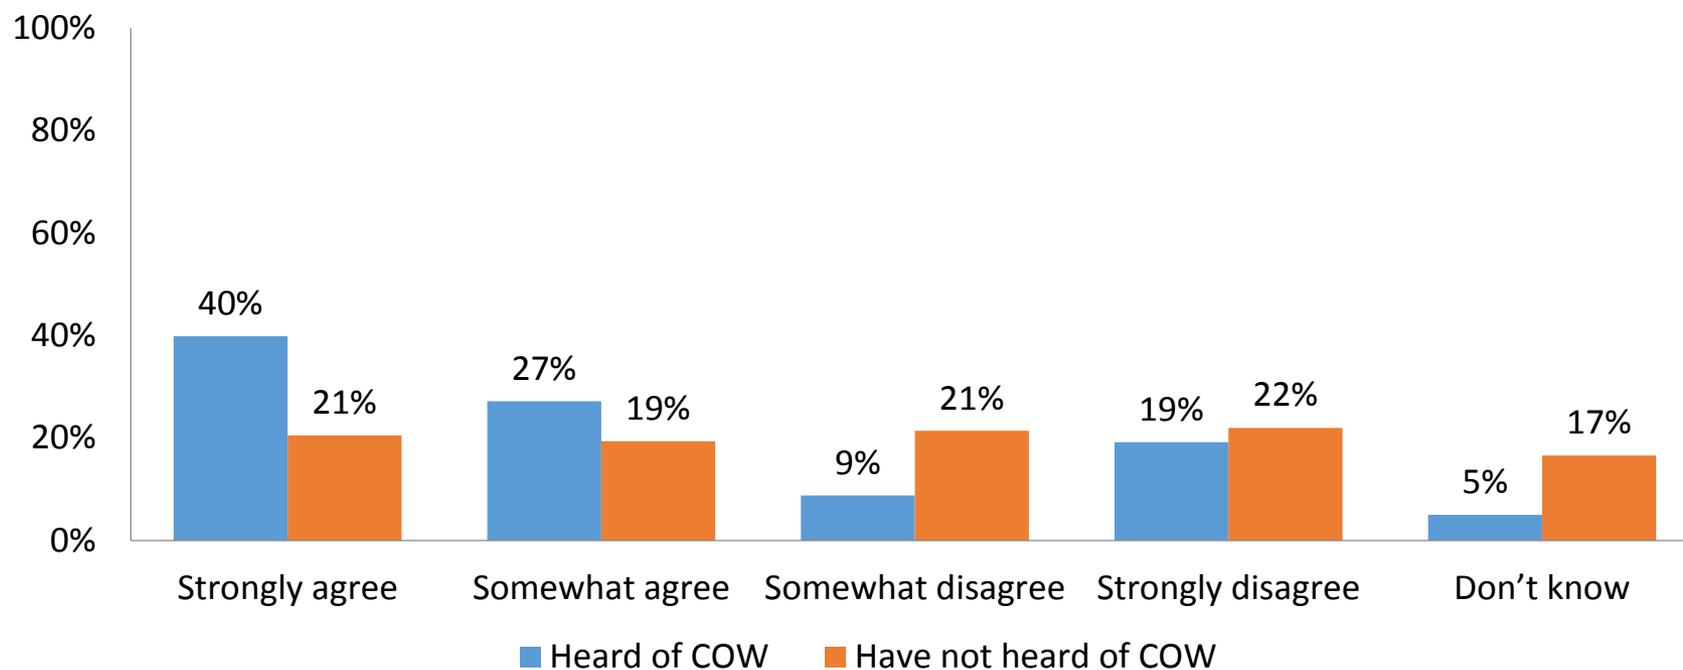

Faster and faster?

Fact 4: Most Tanzanians support speeding up of the integration process

Figure 4: How much do you agree with the statement, “Tanzania (and Burundi) should be part of the Coalition of the Willing”?

80% of Tanzanians have not heard of the so called “Coalition of the willing”

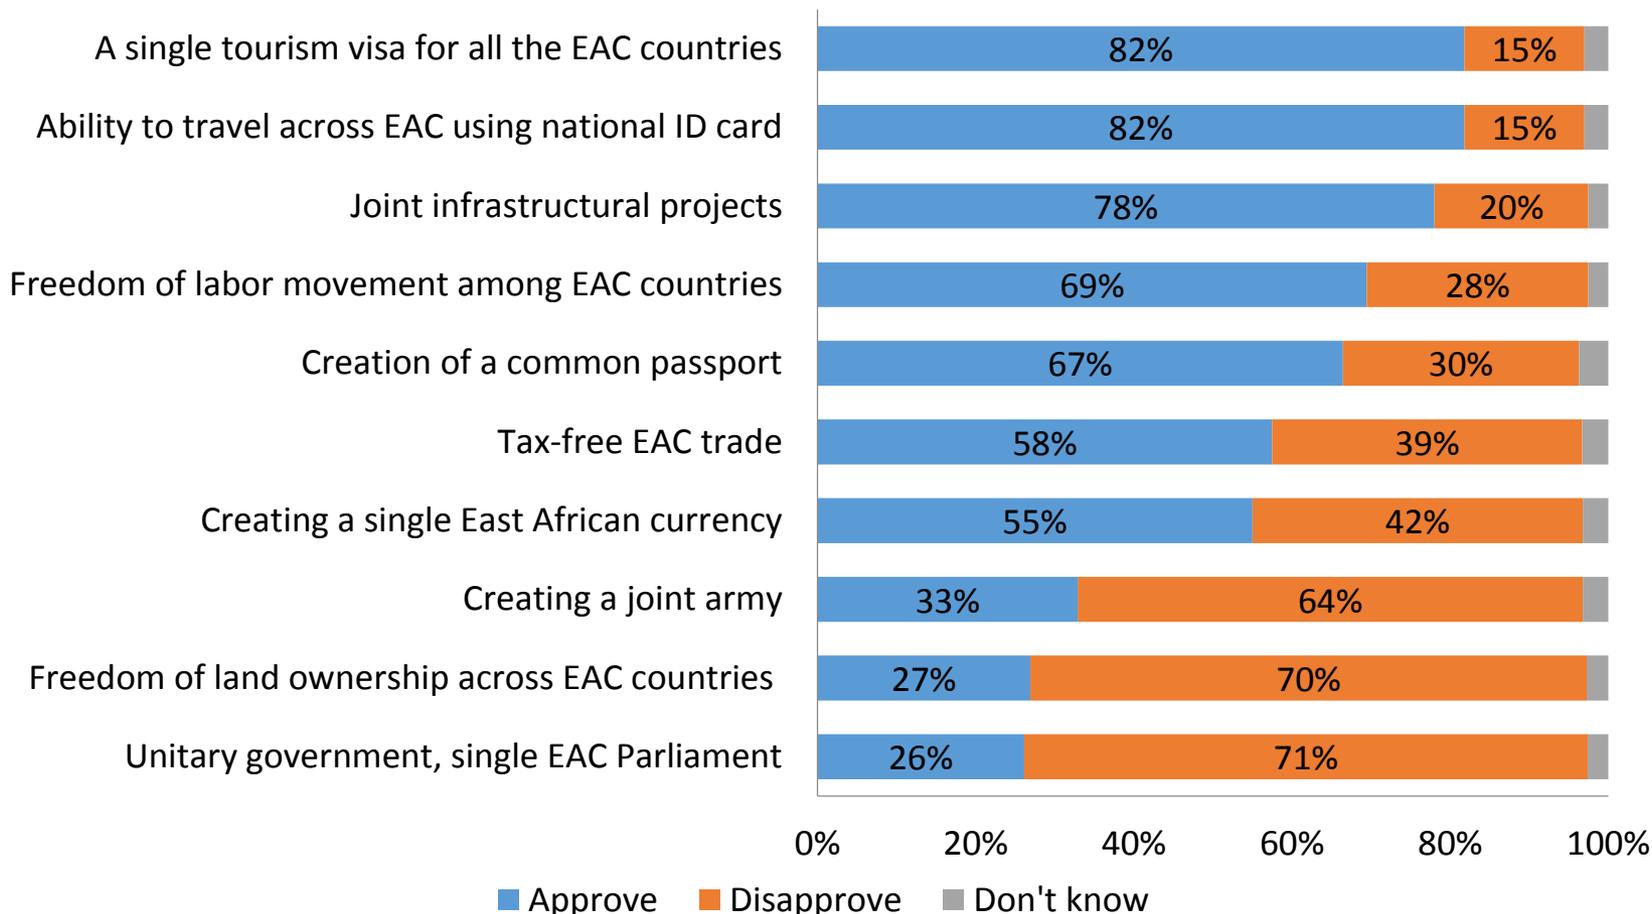

What parts of integration do Tanzanians like?

Fact 5: The most popular aspects of the EAC are a single tourism visa and the ability to travel across the region using a national ID card

Figure 5: Approval levels for each aspect of the EAC

Source of data : Sauti za Wananchi, Mobile Phone Survey – Round 23, August 2014

Are we in or are we out?

Fact 6: Eight out of ten Tanzanians believe we should stay in the EAC

Figure 6: Should Tanzania withdraw from the EAC?

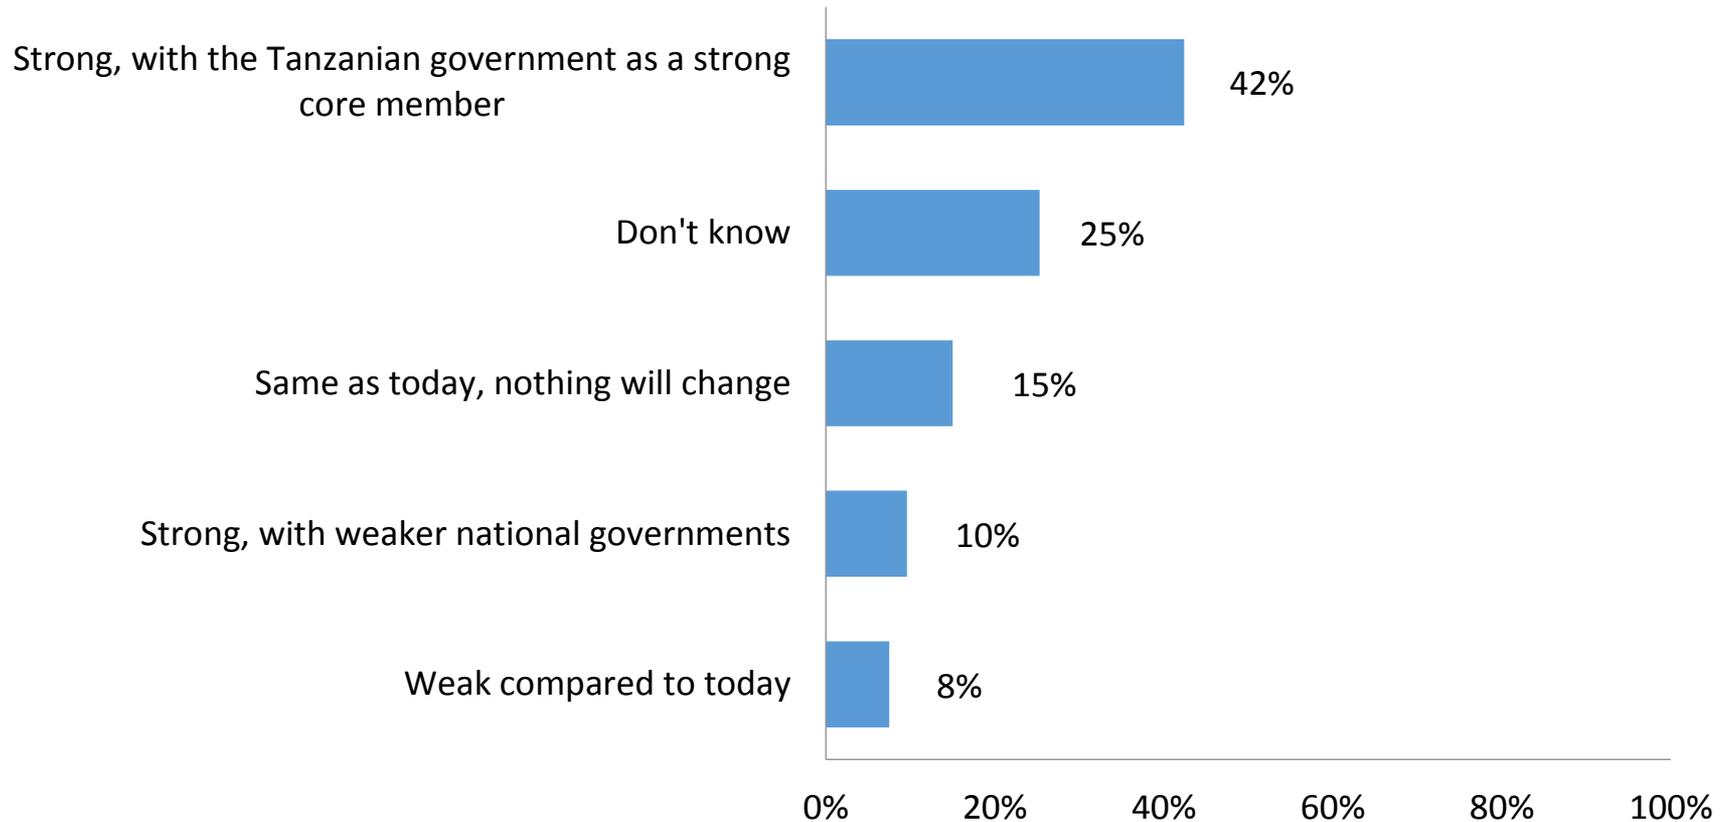

The future of the EAC...

Fact 7: Tanzanians are optimistic about the survival of the EAC

Figure 7: In 10 years will the EAC be....?

Source of data : Sauti za Wananchi, Mobile Phone Survey – Round 23, August 2014

Asante Sana!